Anderson Finch Executed and Doc Eacon Respited.

FINCH MAKES STATEMENT

He Denies His Guilt and De.c. res He Knows Nothing of Bacon's Movements that Day—The History of the Crime.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

BOYDTON, VA., September 2.—Anderson Finch was langed here in the jail yard to-day. The drop fell at 12:55. The neck was not broken, but death was produced by strangulation. He was pronunced dead by Dr. Hamiton in fifteen minutes after the drop fell, but the body was allowed to hang for thirty minutes. Finch showed great nerve and ascended the steps leading to the gallows with a firm and steady step. He stated before, and even after, reaching the gallows that he was innocent. His statements have been contradictory from the beginning to the end. He said on the gallows that he was ready to die.

STATEMENT BY FINCH.

The following statement was taken by Sherfff Cogbill by direction of the Governor a fow moments before the execution by G. C. Anderson, private stenographer for Sherfff Cogbill:

"Doe Bacon had nothing to do with this that I know of. Nothing at all. I do not know nothing of it, either. I am just as innocent of it as God in heaven. I did not tell the preacher in Petersburg that I did it. I told him that I swore that I swore a lie when I told it. I do not want to go before my God with a lie in my mouth. I do not know whether Doe Bacon did it or not. I know I saw him was on the platform at the depot. If Doe was there I do not know myself what Doe did: I told them that I was guilty to save my own life. My God in heaven knows anything about it. I do not know myself what Doe did: I told them that I was guilty to save my own life. My God in heaven knows my well to do the lost of the life to save t. I do not know myself what Doc told them that I was guilty to save n life. My God in heaven knows not there. I swore a lie to save life. I am innocent and was not Finch's body was hipped by express thia afternoon to the medical department of the University of Virginia.

The two negroes were brought here yesterday from Petersburg, where they have been in confinement since their trial. They were in charge of Deputy Sheriff Walter Bates and were marched from the depot to the jail and placed in the steel cage. The faces of the men wore expressions of great terror as they appeared to realize that the supreme hour for them was near at hand.

A RESPITE FOR BACON.

A RESPITE FOR BACON.

At 2 o'clock this morning, a telegram was sent to Sheriff Cogbill by the Governor, granting a respite to Dock Bacon, for a short time, in order to allow his case to be heard by the courts on a motion for a new trial.

The sheriff early this morning sent Dock Bacon back to Petersburg. This action of the Governor was based upon Anderson Finch's statement made recently that he had sworn falsely against Bacon, and that he was an innocent man, and that he, Finch, was the guilty man.

During the morning devotional services were held in the jail in which Anderson Finch joined.

were held in the jull in which Anderson Finch joined.

THE CRIME.

The crime for which Finch paid the death penalty is fresh in the public mind. One night in the latter part of July Mrs. Charley Geoghagan was left alone (except her little children) at her home, in Chase City, her husband having gone to attend a rehearsal for an entertainment in which he was an actor. About 11 o'clock that night, while Mrs. Geoghagan was sitting alone in her front porch, she was selzed from behind by some one and an attempt was made to choke her, and the ruffian at the same time threw meal into her face and eyes, blinding her entirely.

next morning Anderson Finch and The next morning Anderson Fund and Dock Bacon were arrested. After their arrest Anderson Finch confessed, saying that he and Dock Bacon together went to Mr. Geoghagan's, and that while Bacon went into the house and attacked the lady, he was watching in an adjoining lot. There was strong circumstantial evidence in addition to the confession of Angels Bach solves. dence in addition to the confession of Anderson Finch, going to show the guilt of Bacon. One was that there was meal found on his clothing the next morning and a knife he had in his pocket had meal upon it. Bacon stoutly denied his guilt from the first.

GOVERNOR WILL INVESTIGATE.
Governor Montague said last night when the confession of Finch was read to him that he would investigate the case further very carefully, and that the nexro Doe Bason whom he respited until Friday, on the recommendation of Commonwealth's Attorney E. C. Goode, of MeckJenburg, would be given perfect justice.
